Asia Fine Art presents Asian Contemporary Art

Exhibition Period : 3rd – 8th August 2009

Venue : The Rotunda, Exchange Square, Hong Kong

Asian Contemporary Art features a specially collected portfolio of 40 quality paintings - a refreshing mix of ink, watercolour, acrylic and oil paintings by 11 talented artists from China, Korea, Myanmar, Vietnam and Hong Kong.

Uncluttered by convention and with a free thinking spirit, these artists were selected for their differing styles, contrasting compositions in a wide range of colours and textures which they use to express their individualism.

The exhibition runs from 3rd to 8th August at the The Rotunda, Exchange Square, Central, Hong Kong and thereafter at Asia Fine Art, Gallery at Sik On Street, 99 Queen's Road East, Wan Chai until 31st August. Daily 9.00am to 7.00pm.

Participating Artists

Hu Hui a revolutionary landscape painter who modernizes Chinese ink paintings with colourful pigments, impressive images and transform them into inspiring panacea

Ye Tao is from Sichuan. She paints young girls expressing youth, simplicity, inner peace and tranquility.

Wang Xi from Sichuan is currently painting 'sleeping forests', in vibrant green colours, with a definite environmental theme.

Mediha Ting the gifted London based cross-cultural artist who paints with a deep sense of displacement, to express nostalgic relationship in nomadic city life.

Cheri Yeung Born 1969 in Fujian, China, Cheri now resides in Hong Kong and paints with passion and sentimentality, her works are her expressions of the contemporary, an alienated city experience.

Nguyen Hung Son lives in Hanoi and paints the interaction of friends and relations in his daily life. His works have been warmly received over the years.

Kim Tae Huk from Korea, takes contemporary art to a new plane by using woodcut technique to express pointing and embroidering on canvas rather than painting.

Maung Maung Hla Myint is the most celebrated artist, designer and illustrator in the country. He takes viewers on a magical trip to dreamland through his use of delicate lines, astonishing colours and inspiring motifs.

Kyee Myintt Saw was born 1939. His paintings are alive and sparkle with the various hues of the tropical sun of Myanmar. Without doubt, he is the foremost oil on canvas painter in Myanmar today – painting Yangon at night, market scenes and figures.

Khin Maung Than is the master watercolour artist from central Myanmar. Now in the silver years of his life – his works are sought by watercolour collectors of Asian art.

Khin Zaw Latt, at 29 years old, has already established a mature painting style projecting the essence of Buddha in a modern, simplistic powerful way which expresses the inner peace and tranquility. He has recently won the prestigious Myanmar Contemporary art competition - this exhibition will show his latest 'people series'.
