Feminine Mystique

Six talented artists from very different cultural backgrounds come together to celebrate the artistic grace of women on this special Centenary Women's Day 2011. This exhibition acts as a platform in showing the determination and dedication of woman artists who are succeeding in today's competitive art world.

A range of versatile paintings and sculptures in diverse mediums, which unveil the many facets of the female creative psyche. These works show the essence and elegance of the female mystic while expressing a creative journey, which is dynamic, free flowing and self exploratory

The event opens from 10.30 till 6.30pm daily from Wednesday 2nd March and continues until Thursday 31st March.
