Exhibition dates : 12th May – 15th June 2011 (10.30am to 6:30pm daily)

Venue : Asia Fine Art Gallery, 14 Sik On Street, 99 - 101 Queen's Road East, Wan Chai, Hong Kong

A collection of latest contemporary art from Myanmar by the region's five leading artists born in the 1970's and 1980's.

Their collective group exhibition titled 'Five Fingers' has the feel of confidence and vibrancy - a feel that only successful creative artists are able to portray through their late youth, clear cut vision and unblinker thinking. The group of five paint still life, landscape and life scene in the Burmese style which is clean and uncluttered - each in his or her own inimitable way.

They graduated from Fine Art University and have actively participated in exhibitions and events in Myanmar and overseas.

Khine Minn Soe – "I couldn't resist nature's beauty"

Min Mahaw Moe – "Whatever I want to create is my liking"

Mor Mor – "Art is honest."

Saw Lwin Aung – "All olds were news, best creation is best art"

Ye Aung Myat – "Art is the health of mind"

The event opens from 10.30 till 6.30pm daily from Thursday 12th May and continues until 15th June 2011.
