Opening Reception : Thursday 20th October - 05.00 to 9.00pm (artist will be in attendance)

Exhibition dates : 20th October – 20th November 2011 (10.30am to 6:30pm daily)

Venue : Asia Fine Art Gallery, 14 Sik On Street, 99 - 101 Queen's Road East, Wan Chai, Hong Kong

With vibrant colors and ecstatic sensuality, Yonatan Levy's canvases offer a world of invented characters communicating by ambiguous gestures and intriguing body language. Levy's figures are entwined in each other, as if fulfilling their existence by each other. This carnival of dialogues exudes the feeling that the characters are having a conversation or are preparing for some kind of narrative. Levy creates an experience that can seem as group eroticism, with an undercurrent of humor and playfulness.

“Throughout my painting process, there is an embedded friction between strictness and unpredictability. This friction serves as a tool for me to explore the boundaries between the concrete and the ambiguous, between the real and the imaginary.

Yonatan Levy was born 1979 in Jerusalem, Israel. In 2008 he graduated from The School of Art, Jamidrasha, Beit Berl and was included in the widely exhibited and collected portfolio of emerging artists published by ST-ART. Since then he has exhibited in group and solo shows and his work is included in private collections in Israel, Hong-Kong and USA. He received his BFA from Midrasha School of Art, Israel.

The event opens from 10.30 till 6.30pm daily from Thursday 20th October and continues until 20th November 2011.
