Landscapes by Chen Hong Xin

Chen Hong Xin was born and grew up in old Shenzhen when it was just a fishing village. We are delighted to host this solo exhibition and that the artist will present at the opening.

Always interested in art and creation, as a student he first went to Guangzhou to study oil painting which ultimately became his medium. After graduation, he worked as a graphic designer at Guangzhou Fine Art Studio.

Before Shenzhen become the Special Economic Zone of China, he returned home. He is one of the pioneers in promoting the local art scene in Shenzhen and witnessed the tremendous economic, social and infrastructure changes in the area.

For 9 years, Chen Hong Xin was a staff member of Guan Shan Yue Museum, Shenzhen and retired as Director. Now devoting his time to his passion for painting portraits and landscapes - his works are of the finest quality and very much sought-after by collectors.
